

On 2nd October; Students, Staff and faculties of Thakur School of Architecture & Planning attended a full day workshop on making Solar Lamps conducted by IIT – Bombay.

This was an endeavor by IIT-B to promote the use of Solar Lamps by the rural population, as renewable, sustainable and affordable source of LIGHT.

It was the role of the Student Solar Ambassador to spread light and education to Rural India for the underprivileged children.

